

Do not change Indiana's law. If wanted people to bother me while I am eating, relaxing or spending time with my family I would not have joined with the State Attorneys Office to stop the excessive amount of calls.